Outcomes

At the conclusion of this section, students will have:

- 1) Identified world religions and their key characteristics
- 2) Categorized religions as non, poly, or monotheistic
- 3) Memorized the order of world religions in age and popularity

Big Idea: World religions are a large part of culture and history. Their adoption and interactions with other cultures affect events, and characteristics affect the way large populations interact with the world around them. Understanding a country's history or populace means understanding the major world religions of history along with them.
