World War II

There are four PowerPoint presentations posted on the AP World History website. Use the PowerPoint presentation PDFs to work your way through the major developments of World War II both in Europe and the Pacific. When you are finished, take notes on the Global Impact of World War II on the map provided. If you do not finish this in class today, please make sure you complete it at home by Wednesday so we can move forward.

World War II: 1939-1942

1) The Outbreak of World War II

- $\circ$   $\,$  In the 1930s, events throughout the world led to conditions that started World War II
  - High ______, desperation, & feelings of betrayal led to the rise of _______ dictators
  - Fascist dictators _____ & _____ threatened to conquer new territories for Italy & Germany
  - Extreme ______ & a need for raw materials led to a desire to expand in Japan under ______
- By the 1930s, the world was moving towards another war but few nations were in a position to _____ war

- _____ & _____ were the leaders of the League of Nations but both wanted to ______ another war
- The USA was focused on the ______ & wanted to avoid foreign affairs
- Japan, Italy, & Germany

______ in Africa, Asia, & ______ Europe...In 1936, Germany, Italy, & Japan formed an alliance called the ______ Coalition

- Japanese Expansion
  - In 1931, Japan invaded _______ in order to seize its iron & ______ mines
  - In 1937, Japan conquered northern ______ & killed 300,000 unarmed soldiers & civilians during the "______ of Nanjing"
- Italian Expansion
  - In 1935, Mussolini began his campaign to create an
    - _____ by invading Ethiopia
  - The Italian army easily defeated the ______

Critical Thinking Decision #1: How should the League of Nations respond to aggression by Japan and Italy?

In 1931, the Japanese army seized Manchuria, an area rich in iron and coal. Japanese engineers and technicians built mines and factories. In 1937, a full-scale war began between Japan and China. Japanese forces swept into northern China. Despite having a million soldiers, China's army was no match for the better equipped and trained Japanese. Beijing and other northern cities as well as the capital, Nanjing, fell to the Japanese in 1937. Japanese troops killed tens of thousands of captured soldiers and civilians in Nanjing. Meanwhile in Europe, Italian leader Benito Mussolini dreamed of building a colonial empire in Africa like those of Britain and France. Mussolini ordered a massive invasion of Ethiopia in October 1935. The spears and swords of the Ethiopians were no match for Italian airplanes, tanks, guns, poison gas.

The Japanese and Italian attacks were the first direct challenges to the League of Nations. How should the League respond to these acts of aggression? (circle or highlight your choice)

- A. Protest the attacks but do not try to stop it due to fear that doing so would bring an end to peace and lead to a war
- B. Cut off all trade with both nations until the Japanese and Italian armies are removed and order is restored
- C. Intervene in Asia to stop Japan because innocent civilians were massacred, but do not intervene in Ethiopia
- D. Send an international military to fight Japan and Italy and forcibly remove them from China and Ethiopia

- Next, Hitler demanded that the western border of Czechoslovakia, an area known as the
   ______, be given to Germany

Critical Thinking Decision #2: How should the League of Nations respond to aggression by Germany?

On November 5, 1937, Hitler announced his plans to absorb Austria and Czechoslovakia into the Third Reich, or German Empire. The Treaty of Versailles outlawed a union between Austria and Germany. However, many Austrians supported unity with Germany. In March 1938, Hitler sent his army into Austria and annexed it. France and Britain ignored their pledge to protect Austrian independence. Hitler next turned to Czechoslovakia. About three million German-speaking people lived in the western border regions of Czechoslovakia called the Sudetenland. This heavily fortified area formed the Czechs' main defense against Germany. The German-Austrian union raised pro-Nazi feelings among Sudeten Germans. In September 1938, Hitler demanded that the Sudetenland be given to Germany. The Czechs refused and asked France for help.

How should the League of Nations respond to these acts of aggression? (circle or highlight your choice)

- A. Protest Hitler's demand for the Sudetenland but do not try to stop it due to fear that doing so would lead to a war
- B. Have a meeting with Britain, France, Germany, and Italy to negotiate an agreement that would avoid a war
- C. Encourage Britain and France to mobilize their armies and encourage them to attack Germany if the Sudetenland is taken by Germany.
- D. Immediately declare war on Germany to restore Austria and keep the Sudetenland from being taken by Germany

  - Stalin & Hitler agreed to the ______ Nonaggression Pact, promising never to ______ each other
  - Secretly, Germany & the USSR agreed to ______ Poland

Critical Thinking Decision #3: How should Britain and France respond to the German invasion of Poland?

Soviet dictator Joseph Stalin signed a nonaggression pact with Hitler who promised Stalin territory. In a secret part of the pact, Germany and the Soviet Union agreed to divide Poland between them. They also agreed that the USSR could take over Finland and the Baltic countries of Lithuania, Latvia, and Estonia. After signing this nonaggression pact, Hitler quickly moved ahead with plans to conquer Poland. His surprise attack took place at dawn on September 1, 1939. German tanks and troop trucks rumbled across the Polish border. At the same time, German aircraft and artillery began a merciless bombing of Poland's capital, Warsaw.

How should Britain and France respond to these acts of aggression? (circle or highlight your choice)

- A. Protest Hitler's invasion of Poland but do not try to stop it due to fear that doing so would lead to a war
- B. Have another meeting with Germany to negotiate an agreement that would avoid a war
- C. Prepare the British and French militaries for war and demand that Germany withdraw from Poland
- D. Declare war on Germany in order to bring an end to Hitler's aggressive territorial expansion

Critical Thinking Decision #4: How should the United States respond to Japanese aggression in the Pacific?

Like Hitler, Japan's military leaders also had dreams of empire. Japan's expansion had begun in 1931. That year, Japanese troops took over Manchuria in northeastern China. Six years later, Japanese armies swept into the heartland of China. They expected quick victory. Chinese resistance, however, caused the war to drag on. This placed a strain on Japan's economy. To increase their resources, Japanese leaders looked toward the rich European colonies of Southeast Asia. By October 1940, Americans had cracked one of the codes that the Japanese used in sending secret messages. Therefore, they were well aware of Japanese plans for Southeast Asia. If Japan conquered European colonies there, it could also threaten the American-controlled Philippine Islands and Guam. In July 1941, the Japanese overran French Indochina (Vietnam, Cambodia, and Laos).

- A. Protest the attacks but do not try to stop it due to fear that doing so would bring an end to peace and lead to a war
- B. Cut off all trade with Japan until they remove their army and restore order in Asia

con solo cras wou The wou Pres	World War II Decision Making Activity By 1945, World War II was coming to an end. Germany surrendered in May and Japan had lost most of the lands it had conquered in the Pacific. The fighting became harder as the Americans came closer to Japan because many Japanese soldiers would rather die fighting than surrender. Japanese suicide pilots called "kamikazes" sank American ships by crashing their planes into them. It looked as though the Japanese would have to be subdued by a massive invasion. It would be difficult to attack Japan, an island country. An American invasion of Japan was planned for the fall of 1945. The invasion force would consist of some six million men. It was estimated that perhaps one million would be killed or wounded in the fighting that would take at least a year. Millions more Japanese are likely to die as well. In July, President Harry Truman was told that a secret atomic bomb had been successfully tested. There were only two bombs ready, and those bombs were quickly shipped to the Pacific. Truman wanted to end the war as quickly as possible. He faced the decision of whether to use the atomic bombs and, if so, where to drop them. I. Assume the role of an advisor to President Truman.
